

HIS GRACE

SUSAN CHAN

This grace is sufficient for me,
I'll not be shaken by what I see,
But faithfully cling fast to His Word,
For it is truth, and only then I'll be assured.

In this world, trials and troubles abound,
But only in the Lord Jesus peace is found;
Thank You, Lord, that we can always depend on You,
And You alone will see us through.

For when we're weak, at the end of ourselves,
When we can depend on no one else,
Still at such times, dear Lord, You're ever near,
To comfort us, to give us cheer.

So let us lift our heads, our eyes,
For we shall soon be with Him in the skies;
Face to face, it'll be such a glorious sight—
We won't look back on what was transient and light!
