

How Long?

We may lament like David—
‘How long? Lord, how long?’
And may we like him cry out to You,
For when we’re weak, we’re strong—
For You have helped and saved us
Countless times in the past;
So though things may look dark and scary,
We know this storm won’t last.

For God, You’re great and powerful,
And we trust in Your mercy—
So even when things don’t make sense,
When the world seems so crazy,
We still know all things work together
According to Your purpose divine;
And we’ll see answered prayers
According to Your will and Your time.

So, we will praise You,
And meditate upon Your Word;
We will take the shield of faith,
And with truth our waists gird;
Be prepared to tell everyone
Your gospel of peace;
Wear the helmet of salvation,
Praise You, and never cease!

Susan Chan

